Eight Units of Competency are required to achieve this qualification:

- MSAENV272B – Participate in environmentally sustainable work practices [Core]
- MSL922001A – Record and present data [C]
- MSL943002A – Participate in laboratory / field workplace safety [C]
- MSL912001A – Work within a laboratory / field workplace (induction) [C]
- MSL973001A – Perform basic tests [Elective]
- MSL952001A – Collect routine site samples [E]
- MSL972001A – Conduct routine site measurements [E]
- MSL913001A – Communicate with other people [E]

This qualification will enable you to

Gain practical skills and knowledge in:

- Forensic investigation
- Working in a Clinipath environment
- Recording and presenting data
- Using basic equipment
- Performing simple tests
- Identify and measure resources required for a job
- Identifying situations likely to lead to an environmental incident
- Following procedures related to environmental performance
- How to work routinely to procedures
- Ensuring the minimum of resources is used consistent with the job requirements, good practice and procedures

This qualification will provide you with basic employment skills and is mainly used as a stepping-stone to higher level courses.

Duration: Delivered over two years as an integral part of the senior school course; Integrated Science.
Cost: Included in course fees.
Total Nominal Hours: 320
Pre-requisite: None
Pathway options: Certificate III in Laboratory Skills / Mining Exploration